Already entries have been received from 340 school, club, total in the various events will be more than 500.

For the first time in the history of athletic sport in Washington the 56-pound weight will be thrown for height. Martin Sheridan, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, and all-round champion of the world, will make an attempt to break the world's record for this event. Sheridan already has the record to his credit, with 15 feet 6 inches. In a letter received While Stars Will Be Missing, the from him yesterday he said he has been throwing the weight higher than sixteen feet consistently in practice during the last two weeks, and is confident he will make a new record in the Federal games
